1.02 This Corporation will have the purposes or powers as may be stated in its Articles of Incorporation, and such powers as are now or may be granted hereafter by law. The primary purpose of this Corporation is to operate exclusively for one or more purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

1.03 Specific Aims of WISE, Columbia

1: Spread the awareness and importance of Value based Spiritual Education.
2: Holistic and sustainable farming projects including Horticulture and Dairy.
3: To systematically propagate spiritual knowledge to the society at large and to educate all the people in the techniques of spiritual life in order to check the imbalance of values in life and to achieve real unity and peace.
4. To bring the members closer together for the purpose of living a simpler and more natural way of life.

ARTICLE TWO - OFFICES AND AGENCY

Principal and Branch Offices
2.01. The principal place of business of this Corporation will be in Missouri. In addition, the Corporation may maintain other offices either within or without the State of Missouri as its business requires.

Location of Registered Office
2.02. The location of the initial registered office of this Corporation will be in Missouri. Such office will be continuously maintained in the State of Missouri for the life of this Corporation. The Board of Directors may from time to time change the address of its registered office by duly adopted resolution and filing the appropriate statement with the Secretary of State.

ARTICLE THREE – MEMBERSHIP

Membership
3.01. The founding member(s) of this Corporation shall be (hereinafter “the Membership”), or any successor thereto.
3.02. The Membership may invite additional members upon the unanimous decision of all members.
3.03. In the event of the incapacitation, death, or resignation of a member of The Membership, their membership interest may be assigned by that member to one successor.
3.04. Decisions of the Membership are made by the founding members.

Rights, Powers, and Privileges

3.05 In addition to such other rights, powers, and privileges as it may have by law, the Corporation's Membership, shall have the following rights, powers, and privileges:

(1)To accept or reject any vote, decision or recommendation by the Board of Directors, including but not limited to the Annual Budget of the Corporation.

(2)To approve, upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors, any necessary agreements to carry out its purposes under the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws including the sale of disposition of any assets of the Corporation not in the usual course of business and the incurring of any indebtedness for borrowed money;

(3)To remove any officer or member of the Board of Directors at any time, regardless of the term for which such member may have been elected;

(4)To appoint all Board of Directors. The member shall adopt resolutions electing Board of Directors of the Corporation at the annual meeting of its Board of Directors;

(5)To amend the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Corporation as provided in these Bylaws; and

(6) To vote upon all matters on which members are entitled to vote.

(7)To receive reasonable compensation, compensation may be paid only for bona fide services, and should be approved via a disinterested decision-making process consistent with a conflict-of-interest policy.

3.06. These rights are subject to WISE, Columbia, Inc.’s Conflict of Interest Policy.

Dismissal of The Membership
3.07. A member of the Membership cannot be removed by the Board of Directors unless the member is deemed not to adhere to the article 7 of the bylaws or by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally or physically incompetent to perform or upon the occurrence of a “Bad

Act." A "Bad Act" means the Member has, pursuant to a final non-appealable court adjudication, been found to have committed (i) a material breach of its duties hereunder or (ii) fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct and shall be required to provide restitution to the Corporation of any and all losses sustained by the Corporation.

ARTICLE FOUR – GENERAL MEMBERS

General Members

4.01 The Corporation may choose to accept applications for General Members (hereinafter "General Members") into the Corporation. General Members shall not have the same rights and privileges as the Membership. Instead, the rights and privileges of General Members shall be governed by the board-approved General Members Policies not stated herein.

ARTICLE FIVE – DIRECTORS

Definition of Board of Directors

5.01. The Board of Directors is that group of persons vested with the management of the business and affairs of this Corporation subject to the law, the Articles of Incorporation, and these Bylaws. Board expectations are primarily in governance terms (meeting attendance, fiduciary oversight, strategic and financial stewardship).

Qualifications of Directors

5.02. The qualifications for becoming and remaining a Director of this Corporation are as follows:
(1) Directors need not be residents of the State of Missouri.
(2) Directors must be of age of more than 21years.

Number of Directors

5.03. The number of Directors of this Corporation will not be less than five(5) at any time.

Terms of Directors

5.04.
(1) The Directors constituting the first Board of Directors as named in the Articles of Incorporation will hold office until the first annual election of Directors. Thereafter, Directors will serve for a term of two (2) year(s). Each Director will hold office for the term for which selected and until a successor has been elected and qualified. After the first election of the directors each Director will hold office for the term for which elected and until a successor has been appointed.

(2) A Director may be removed from office when such action will serve the best interests of this Corporation in the manner prescribed in the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws for the appointment of Directors. Such removal will be without prejudice to any contract rights of the Director so removed.

Vacancies on the Board
5.05. Resignation of Directors will become effective immediately or on the date specified therein, and vacancies will be deemed to exist as of such effective date. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors, and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of Directors, will be filled by appointment by the Membership. The new Director appointed to fill the vacancy will serve for the unexpired term of the predecessor in office.

Election of the Board of Directors
5.06. Every 2 years there will be an election for the Board members.

Honorary Board of Directors
5.07. After the term of 2 years is completed, board of directors member may continue to serve on the board for another term. The organization values the contribution of the board members and will welcome the previous board member to serve on the board. It is discretion of the board member, they may stay or resign from their post. In a situation, when board members decide to resign, they may continue to serve as honorary members as coaches for the newly elected board members. They will have an advisory role with no governance authority unless also directors/officers.

Board of Directors Attendance
5.08 Board members should be contributing to the organization and attending the meetings with at least 70 percent attendance in the board meetings. Board members are expected not to miss more than three (3) consecutive meetings in a row unless otherwise clearly stated due to some valid reason.

Place of Directors' Meetings
5.09. Meetings of the Board of Directors on a regular basis will be held via virtual platform: either Zoom/Teams with prior notice in advance to the board members. Special meetings will be held at the registered office of this Corporation or any place or places within or without the state as the Board of Directors may designate by resolution duly adopted.

Regular Directors' Meetings
5.09. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors will be held and the timing of such meetings will be at the discretion of the board. This provision of the Bylaws constitutes notice to all Directors of regular meetings for all years and instances, and no further notice shall be required although such notice may be given.

Notice of Special Directors' Meetings
5.10. Written or printed notice stating the place, day, and hour of any special meeting of the Board of Directors will be delivered to each Director not less than two nor more than seven business days before the date of the meeting, either personally, electronically via email so long as the Director has agreed to the electronically transmitted notice, or by first class mail, by or at the direction of the President, or the Secretary, or the Directors calling the meeting. If mailed, such notice will be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail [by registered or certified mail] addressed to the Director at his or her address as it appears on the records of this Corporation, with postage prepaid. Such notice need not state the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, such meeting.

Call of Special Board Meetings

5.11. A special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called by either:

(1) The President.
(2) The Executive Committee.
(3) The Membership

Waiver of Notice

5.12. Attendance of a Director at any meeting of the Board of Directors will constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where such Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Quorum of Directors

5.13. Three (3) of the whole Board of Directors will constitute a quorum. The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present will be the act of the Board of Directors, unless a greater number is required under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, or any provision of these Bylaws.

5.14. Decisions made by the Board of Directors shall be considered as an approval so long as the meetings consist of a quorum of the Board of Directors.

5.15. Frequency of Board Meeting:

- Regular meeting cadence will be Annual and semiannual
- Standard notice for regular meetings will be 7 days.
- Standard notice for special meetings will vary from 48 hours–7 days.

Annual meetings and special meetings of the board shall be held upon prior notice by email or Whatsapp communication.

Annual Meetings

Board meetings will be held at the beginning of the new year in the month of January or February. The date and time will be decided by the prior communication within the group. At the annual meeting of Directors, adequate and correct books and records of accounts including accounts of its properties and business transactions and accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains and losses shall be presented.

Semi-Annual Meeting

Board members will meet once every 6 months to discuss the overall functioning and strategies for the growth and development of the organization.

6.01. The Officers of this Corporation will consist of the following personnel:
(1) President.
(2) Vice President.
(3) Secretary.
(4) Treasurer.

Selection of Officers

6.02. Each of the Officers will be elected for a term of two (2) year(s) by the Board of Directors. Each Officer will remain in office until a successor to such office has been selected and qualified. Such election will take place at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors taking place in the first calendar quarter of each year.

Multiple Officeholders
6.03. In any election of Officers, the Board of Directors may elect and appoint a single person to any two or more offices simultaneously, except that the offices of President and Secretary must be held by separate individuals. Officers may serve ex officio as Directors of this Corporation.

President
6.04. The President will be the Chief Executive Officer of this Corporation and will, subject to the control of the Board of Directors or Directorial Committees, supervise and control the affairs of the Corporation. The President will perform all duties incident to such office, and such other duties as may be provided in these Bylaws or as may be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Vice President
6.05. The Vice President shall perform all duties and exercise all powers of the President when the President is absent or otherwise unable to act. The Vice President will perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Secretary
6.06. The Secretary shall (1) keep minutes of all meetings of Members and of the Board of Directors; (2) be the custodian of the corporate records; (3) give all notices as are required by law or by these Bylaws; and, generally, (4) perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may be required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, or that may be assigned from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Treasurer
6.07. The Treasurer shall (1) have charge and custody of all corporate funds; (2) deposit the funds as required by the Board of Directors; (3) keep and maintain adequate and correct accounts of the Corporation's properties and business transactions; (4) render reports and accountings to the Directors (and Members) as required by the Board of Directors or Members or by law; and (5) perform in general all duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as may be required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, or that may be assigned from time to time by the Board of Directors, (6) responsible for managing yearly external financial audit.

Removal of Officers

6.08. Any Officer elected or appointed to office may be removed by the persons authorized under these Bylaws to elect or appoint such Officers, whenever in their judgment the best interests of this Corporation will therefore be served. Such removal, however, shall be without prejudice to any contract rights of the Officer so removed.

ARTICLE SEVEN- GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE OF THE CORPORATION

7.1 WISE, Columbia Inc. is intended to be board-governed (the Board is the ultimate governing body, except where ownership and responsibility of managing the assets is required by the law). The corporation is owned by the membership, therefore membership has reserved powers to safeguard the purpose of the Corporation. It recognizes that all of its assets are held in trust for the founding members, which has a beneficial ownership in said assets to fulfill the purpose of the Non-profit corporation. In the event that the membership makes an ecclesiastical decision that the Corporation has deviated from its purpose and/or the ecclesiastical pronouncements of the membership the real and personal property of the Corporation shall revert to the exclusive control of the membership until such time as the membership appoints a new Board of Directors of the Corporation.

7.2 Governing policies

For the strong and efficient operations the WISE, Board adopts and adheres to the key governance policies applicable to membership, board of directors, officers and members at all circumstances. The policies are set forth below:

7.2.1 Conflict of interest policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Conflict of Interest Policy is to protect the interests of WISE, Columbia, Inc. when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer, director, or committee member.
This policy is intended to supplement but not replace applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit organizations.

2. Definition of Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest may occur when a covered individual has a financial, personal, or business interest that could influence, or appear to influence, their judgment in matters involving the organization.
Examples include:

- Ownership or investment in a business that does business with the organization
- Compensation or financial benefit from an entity working with the organization
- Family or close personal relationships with individuals or businesses involved in organizational decisions

3. Definitions

Interested Person
Any director, principal officer, committee member with governing board powers, or any person who has a direct or indirect financial interest.
Financial Interest
A person has a financial interest if they, directly or indirectly through business, investment, or family:

- Have an ownership or investment interest in an entity with which the organization has a transaction or arrangement
- Have a compensation arrangement with the organization or with an entity involved in a transaction
- Have a potential ownership, compensation, or investment interest in any entity the organization is considering doing business with.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest, but it must be disclosed.

4. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence and nature of the financial interest to the board or appropriate committee.

5. Determining Whether a Conflict Exists

After disclosure:

1. The interested person leaves the meeting during discussion and voting.
2. The remaining board members determine whether a conflict of interest exists.

6. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict

If a conflict of interest is determined to exist:

1. The interested person may present factual information but must leave before deliberation.
2. The board or committee shall determine whether the organization can obtain a more advantageous transaction from a party that would not create a conflict.
3. If no better option exists, the board may approve the transaction if it is fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the organization.
4. Approval requires a majority vote of disinterested directors.

7. Violations of the Policy

If the board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict:

1. The member will be informed and given an opportunity to explain.
2. If the board determines a failure to disclose occurred, it may take appropriate disciplinary or corrective action.

8. Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the board and committees shall contain:

- The names of persons who disclosed a conflict
- The nature of the financial interest
- Any action taken to determine whether a conflict existed
- The final decision and vote

9.Compensation

A voting member of the board who receives compensation from the organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to their compensation.

10. Annual Statements

Each director, officer, and key employee shall annually sign a statement affirming that they:

1. Received a copy of the policy
2. Have read and understand the policy
3. Agree to comply with the policy
4. Understand the organization is charitable and must operate in a way that maintains its tax-exempt status

11. Periodic Reviews

To ensure the organization operates in a manner consistent with its charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, the board shall conduct periodic reviews of compensation arrangements and partnerships.

12. Annual Acknowledgment

All board members, officers, and key employees will annually acknowledge that they have read, understand, and agree to comply with this Conflict of Interest Policy.

7.2.2 Compensation approval process

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Compensation Approval Process is to ensure that compensation for directors, officers, or members of WISE, Columbia, Inc. is reasonable, transparent, and in the best interest of the organization. This process helps the organization maintain compliance with nonprofit governance standards and expectations from the Internal Revenue Service.

2. Scope

This policy applies to compensation decisions for directors, officers, or members who receive compensation from the organization as an encouragement token for their bonafide services.

3. Compensation Review Committee

The Board of Directors will designate a Compensation Committee or the full board (excluding any interested individuals) to review and approve compensation. Members of the committee must be independent and free from conflicts of interest.

4. Review Criteria

When determining compensation, the board or committee should consider:

- Duties and responsibilities of the position
- Qualifications and experience of the individual
- Compensation levels at similar nonprofit organizations
- The organization's financial resources and budget
- Performance and organizational impact

Whenever possible, the board should review comparable salary data from similar organizations.

5. Conflict of Interest

Any board member or officer whose compensation is being considered must:

- Disclose the conflict of interest
- Leave the meeting during discussion and voting
- Not participate in the decision

6. Approval Process

1. The Compensation Committee reviews the proposed compensation.
2. The committee reviews relevant comparability data (salary surveys, similar nonprofit pay scales, etc.).
3. The committee discusses and determines whether the compensation is reasonable and appropriate.
4. The committee or board approves the compensation by majority vote of disinterested members.

7. Documentation

The minutes of the meeting approving compensation must include:

- The compensation amount and terms
- The comparability data used in the review
- Names of members present during the discussion
- Documentation that the interested person was not present for the vote
- The final board decision

8. Periodic Review

Compensation arrangements should be reviewed periodically, typically once per year, to ensure continued fairness and alignment with the organization's financial condition.

7.2.3 Whistleblower policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Whistleblower Policy is to encourage directors, officers, and volunteers of WISE, Columbia, Inc. to report in good faith any suspected illegal, unethical, or improper conduct related to the organization's activities. The organization is committed to maintaining high standards of integrity and accountability.

2. Reportable Concerns

This policy applies to concerns about suspected misconduct including, but not limited to:

- Fraud or financial mismanagement
- Theft or misuse of organizational funds or property
- Violations of laws or regulations
- Conflicts of interest not properly disclosed
- Harassment, discrimination, or other unethical behavior
- Any activity that could damage the reputation or operations of the organization

3. Reporting a Concern

Individuals are encouraged to report concerns as soon as possible to one of the following:

- Any member of the Board of Directors
- Executive committee

Reports may be made verbally or in writing and should include as much detail as possible about the suspected misconduct.

4. Protection from Retaliation

No director, officer, or member or volunteer who in good faith reports a concern shall suffer harassment, retaliation, or adverse consequences for making a report. Anyone who retaliates against a person who has reported a concern in good faith will be subject to disciplinary action.

5. Confidentiality

Reports of suspected misconduct will be handled as confidentially as possible. Information will only be shared with individuals who need to know in order to investigate and address the issue.

6. Investigation

All reported concerns will be reviewed promptly and fairly. The Board of Directors or a designated committee may investigate the report and take appropriate corrective action if misconduct is found.

7. False Reports

While the organization encourages good-faith reporting, knowingly making false accusations may result in disciplinary action.

7.2.4 Document retention and destruction policy

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Document Retention and Destruction Policy is to establish guidelines for the retention, storage, and disposal of organizational records of WISE, Columbia, Inc. Proper management of records helps ensure compliance with legal requirements and promotes good governance and accountability.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all documents and records created, received, or maintained by board members, officers, employees, and volunteers of the organization. Records may exist in paper or electronic form.

3. Retention of Records

The organization will maintain records for the period necessary to comply with legal, operational, and financial requirements. Examples include:

Record Type	Retention Period
Articles of Incorporation & Bylaws	Permanent
Board Meeting Minutes	Permanent
Financial Statements & General Ledgers	7 years
IRS Filings (Form 990 and related documents)	Permanent
Tax Records & Supporting Documents	7 years
Contracts & Agreements	7 years after expiration
Employee Records	7 years after termination
Donor Records & Contribution Documentation	7 years

4. Storage of Records

Records should be stored in a secure location with reasonable safeguards to protect confidentiality, prevent unauthorized access, and reduce risk of loss or damage. Electronic records should be backed up regularly when possible.

5. Document Destruction

When the retention period has expired, records may be destroyed in an appropriate manner such as shredding paper documents or permanently deleting electronic files.
Destruction must be carried out in a way that protects confidential or sensitive information.

6. Suspension of Destruction

If the organization becomes aware of an investigation, audit, or legal action, destruction of relevant records must be suspended until the matter is resolved.

7. Responsibility

The Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing compliance with this policy and ensuring that records are retained and destroyed appropriately.

ARTICLE EIGHT – COMMITTEES

Definition of Directorial Committees

8.01. This Corporation may appoint Committees, each of which shall consist of two or more Directors. Such Directorial Committees shall have and exercise the authority as presented by the Board of Directors. However, no such Committee shall have the authority of the Board to affect any of the following:
(1) Submission to Members of any action for which the approval of Members is required under the law.

(2) Filling of vacancies in the Board.
